

The Wanamaker Store. The Store Is in Its Richest Bloom

TULIPS, roses, dahlias, chrysanthemums—each have their season of full glory. So has the store; late autumn—these last October days.

There will be the jollities of Christmas by-and-by—another sort of brightness, but the store as the holder of rich and beautiful things—for home and for self—is at its best right now.

Will you enjoy it? Come rather as visitor than shopper—the daily attendance grows larger and larger, but we have the art of making people comfortable.

There is none of that "bargain counter rush" that serves as text for the jaded humorist, and as the last means of exhaustion for tired woman.

Yet no store sells worthy goods so uniformly cheap—it is our daily business, not spasmodic. Real things are cheaper than shams—almost as cheap in the first cost; infinitely cheaper in the long run. Very fine and elegant, very exclusive goods—very popular ones, too—and this is Wanamaker's.

THE LATEST DRESS FABRIC FROM Paris is an epingle-velour—"epingle" is the poplin cord, heavy; "velour" is for the general richness. The poplin ground's strewn with bows-knots of crepon—the silk is a wool, and with the silk showing most. All black—a midnight sky—but lit with stars of color: tan, old rose, cel, heliotrope, cardinal. 3.50 a yard.

The Rotunda is full of rich dress fabrics; holds by far the largest collection of really elegant stuffs that America sees.

There is a Bargain Store on Fifth Floor —as peculiarly good in its way as the general store. The bargains are real: We dignify the word. Much interesting detail follows:

In the Fifth Floor Bargain Store

Every item deserves a large space in the paper, but instead of long descriptions please accept this statement as to each article—

The price is ten to fifty per cent. under the regular. All the goods are of first-quality, unless termed "seconds," and are guaranteed in the broad generous way that we guarantee everything we sell: The article must be all you can reasonably expect and must suit you—else we want it returned.

Trunks

These have slight scuff or scratches on the outside—really less damage than they would ordinarily suffer in a long trip. Interiors are perfect. 50 of these trunks are very moderately priced before these new dress-workings: White wood-blanket cotton $60.80 in.; white wood-blanket cotton $1.50 per pair, though little enough when $1.75; leather, larger, heavier at $1.65, instead of $2; still larger and finer at $3, instead of $3.75. Then at $6 a pair, blankets of fine wool filling on spool of cotton warp, 77x32 in., 7 lbs., that were excellent value at $8.

Bedsprads at 75¢ each—Large crocheted spreads that are well worth $1.

Marsilles spreads, full size, fast back, numerous excellent patterns, at $1.50—were low at $1.85.

Blankets and Spreads

The kinds we know to be good, at prices you know to be wonderfully cheap. They were very moderately priced before these new dress-workings: White wood-blanket cotton $60.80 in.; white wood-blanket cotton $1.50 per pair, though little enough when $1.75; leather, larger, heavier at $1.65, instead of $2; still larger and finer at $3, instead of $3.75.

Then at $6 a pair, blankets of fine wool filling on spool of cotton warp, 77x32 in., 7 lbs., that were excellent value at $8.
